(FOR THE COUNTRY.) Is published regularly on TUESDAYS, THURSDAYS and SATURDAYS, at $6 per

Died, most suddenly, yet peacefully, on Wednesday, Aug. 24, at the Yellow Sulphur Springs, Montgomery county, Virginia, in the 35th year of his age, General Edwin G. Lee, eldest son of Mr. Edmund J. and Mrs. Henrietta B. Lee, of Shepherdstown, West Virginia, and son in law of Rev. Dr. Pendleton, of Lexing-

Having entered upon life at the bar with bright prospects a year or two before the war. this brilliant officer, at the first summons of Virginia, threw himself for her defence into that great conflict as Lieutenant in a volunteer company from his native town, in which capacity he rendered against the atrocious preliminary raid of John Brown, service that attracted the attention of his great kinsman and sub sequent Commander-in-Chief, General R. E.

When at the first note of war the Second Regiment Virginia volunteer infantry, to which his company belonged, repaired to Harper's Ferry, he was forthwith made its adjutant, and soon thereafter, Stonewall Jackson-having taken command-selected him for his first staff appointment, and made him his own confidential aid-de camp-a peculiar distinction, in view of the many young soldiers, accomplished by military training, then under the eagle eye

This trusted staff officer was after the first battle of Manassas, on the special recommen dation of his renowned chief, made Major of the Thirty third regiment Virginia volunteer infantry. By election he duly became its Lieutenant Colonel, and ultimately, on the death of the lamented Col. Neff, its Colonel; and this command he gallently led in the summer and fall campaigns of '62, from the bloody field of Severe bleeding of the lungs, to which for some time he had been liable, but would not yield, there brought on by exposure, compelled him, on surgeon's injunction, for a season to seek relief. But allowing himself no quiescene. he only changed his post of perilous service. until increasing disease forced him to accept the non combattant position of judge (as Col.) on a Confederate military court.

Although thereby exempt, and by disease fully exonerated, from field duty, his heroic spirit could brook no inaction when a crisis came, demanding the best that every man could render. Being in Richmond when, in the summer of 1864 it was threatened by But ler's army from Bermuda Hundreds, he promptly volunteered on the staff of General Ransom to aid in defending the capital; and to the punishment inflicted on the notorious Massachu setts champion his sagacity, energy and gallanevinced in addition to previous eminent services, more responsible duties were now again assigned this efficient soldier. While still in camp near Drewry's Bluff, laboring for the completion of Butler's discomfiture, he received orders to repair to the Vailey, with headtimate success of the great Southern cause. proved commander in chief, he was rewarded with the rank of Brigader.

The population sharing his dauntless spirit, responded commendably to his appeals, and he had the satisfaction of supplying some valuable recruits to the army of Northern Virginia,

The youthful General, sagacious in council as vigorous in action, still an invalid, was, late in '64, selected for confidential service abroad, and running the blockade from Wilmington, N. C., proceeded via Nassau, to Canada, where with approved fidelity and skill, he represented the interest of the Southern Confederacy until the fatal overthrow of that short lived na-

Since returning, a year thereafter, to his native State, General Edwin Lee, although suffering under mortal disease, has like most of the true Southern stock, assiduously devoted himself to needful labor for current maintenance and towards repairing ruin which triumphant aggression has left in its track.

With a force of character commanding admiration, a simple Christian piety, winning affectionate confidence, and a genial humor death as have been his fondly loving friends, and long as they have anxiously expected the separation it brings, not without poignant grief can they part with one so valued. But they sorrow with a well founded Christain hope, and cherish of him a precious memory embalmed in MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debuity, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved. He who places himself under the care of Dr

J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician. ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored. This distressing Affection-which renders live miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper in-duigencies. Young persons are too apt to com-mit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Montal Functions weakened.—

Death. A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS. Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury! Persons runed by gnorant, Trifling Pretenders and their Deadly Poison, should apply immediately. DR. JOHNSTON, Member of the Royal College of Surgoons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that the control of the most astonishing cures that the cure was known; many troubled with that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep great pervousness, being starmed at sudden sounds, bashfu ness, with frequent blushing, attended with derangement of cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both nody and mind, unfitting them for either busines, study, society or

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weaknese of the Back and Limbs. MENTALLY — The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit fre-quently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, rerders marriage impossible, and destroys both and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before contemplating MARRIAGE, Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness, Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own. DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has impibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens the most reasonable terms, all work in his line, and satisfaction warranted.

He solicits work from the adjacent courty, as he is prepared to contract for building, or to do any kind of repairing.

He solicits work from the adjacent courty, as alone betriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore threat that an ill-imed sense of shame or dread of limbs, dimness of sight, dearness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities progressing with fright-ful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose tall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of this awith disease becomes a norrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIK victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRETENDER, who by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to ar newal or Life Vigor and Happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health
